

Digital Currencies and National Security Symposium

Harvard Law School, Wasserstein Hall, 2nd Floor, Milstein West
Oct. 14, 2022, 9:30am-3:45pm (lunch provided)

Keynotes

Daleep Singh

Chief Global Economist,
PGIM Fixed Income;
Former Deputy National Security Advisor for International Economics

Christopher Waller

Member, Federal Reserve Board of Governors

Agenda

9:30-10:00 Registration and
Welcome from the Editors

10:00-10:30 The Orkney Slew and
Central Bank Digital Currencies (CBDC)

10:30-11:30 CBDC Design Choices
and Security Implications

12:00-1:15 Keynote Lunch: Digital Currencies and National Security

1:30-2:30 Combating Crypto Threat
Actors: Blockchain Analytics, Sanctions, and Enforcement

2:30-3:45 Digital Assets, Money
Laundering, and Illicit Financing

Presented by the Harvard National Security
Journal with Crimson Sponsors:

Davis Polk

JENNER & BLOCK

MORRISON FÖERSTER

